

AUDIT AND FINANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

Columbia Economic Development Corporation

This Audit and Finance Committee Charter was adopted by the Board of Directors of the Columbia Economic Development Committee, a public benefit corporation established under the laws of the State of New York, on this 28 day of March, 2023.

Purpose

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 1 of the Corporation's bylaws, the purpose of the Audit and Finance committee shall be to (1) assure that the Corporation's board fulfills its responsibilities for the Corporation's internal and external audit process, the financial reporting process and the system of risk assessment and internal controls over financial reporting; (2) provide an avenue of communication between management, the independent auditors, the internal auditors, and the board of directors; and (3) Oversee the corporation's debt and debt practices and to recommend policies concerning the corporation's issuance and management of debt.

Powers of the Audit and Finance Committee

It shall be the responsibility of the Audit and Finance committee to:

- Appoint, compensate, and oversee the work of any public accounting firm employed by the Corporation.
- Conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibility.
- Seek any information it requires from Corporation employees, all of whom should be directed by the board to cooperate with committee requests.
- Meet with Corporation staff, independent auditors or outside counsel, as necessary.
- Retain, at the Corporation's expense, such outside counsel, experts and other advisors as the audit committee may deem appropriate.
- Review proposals for the issuance of debt by the corporation and its subsidiaries and to make recommendations concerning those proposals to the board.
- Make recommendations concerning the appointment and compensation of investment advisors and underwriting firms used by the corporation, and to oversee the work performed by these individuals and firms on behalf of the corporation.
- Review proposals relating to the repayment of debt or other long-term financing arrangements by the corporation and its subsidiaries.
- Report annually to the corporation's board how it discharged its duties and met its responsibilities as outlined in the charter.

- Conduct and annual self-evaluation of its performance, including its effectiveness and compliance with the charter and request board approval of any proposed changes to said charter.
- Annually review by the CEDC and SBA loan funds, including loan policies, lending limits and reserves.

The CEDC Board of Directors will ensure that the Audit and Finance committee has sufficient resources to carry out its duties.

Composition of Committee and Selection of Members

The membership of the committee shall be as set forth in accordance with and pursuant to Article IV, Section 1 of the Corporation's bylaws. The Audit and Finance committee shall consist of at least five (5) members of the board of directors who are independent of Corporation operations. The Corporation's board will appoint the audit committee members and the Audit and Finance committee chair. The Chairperson of the Audit and Finance Committee shall be the Treasurer of the corporation.

Audit and Finance committee members shall be prohibited from being an employee of the Corporation or an immediate family member of an employee of the Corporation. In addition, Audit and Finance committee members shall not engage in any private business transactions with the Corporation or receive compensation from any private entity that has material business relationships with the Corporation, or be an immediate family member of an individual that engages in private business transactions with the Corporation or receives compensation from an entity that has material business relationships with the Corporation.

Ideally, all members on the Audit and Finance committee shall possess or obtain a basic understanding of governmental financial reporting and auditing.

The audit committee shall have access to the services of at least one financial expert; whose name shall be disclosed in the annual report of the Corporation.

The Audit and Finance committee's financial expert should have 1) an understanding of generally accepted accounting principles and financial statements; 2) experience in preparing or auditing financial statements of comparable entities; 3) experience in applying such principles in connection with the accounting for estimates, accruals and reserves; 4) experience with internal accounting controls and, 5) an understanding of audit committee functions.

Meetings

The Audit and Finance committee will meet a minimum of twice a year, with the expectation that additional meetings may be required to adequately fulfill all the obligations and duties outlined in the charter.

Members of the Audit and Finance committee are expected to attend each committee meeting, in person or via telephone or videoconference. The Audit and Finance committee may invite other individuals, such as members of management, auditors or other technical experts to attend meetings and provide pertinent information, as necessary.

The Audit and Finance committee will meet with the Corporation's independent auditor at least annually to discuss the financial statements of the Corporation.

The Chairperson shall preside over Committee meetings, which shall be open to the public in accordance with the salient provisions of the Open Meeting Law of the State of New York, as set forth within Article 7 of the Public Officers Law. Meeting agendas shall be prepared prior to every meeting and provided to the Committee members along with any other relevant materials at least five (5) business days before the scheduled Audit and Finance Committee meeting.

Minutes of these meetings shall be recorded and a report of the Committee's meeting shall be prepared and presented to the Board of Directors at its next scheduled meeting following the meeting of the Committee.

Responsibilities

The Audit and Finance committee shall have responsibilities related to: (a) the independent auditor and annual financial statements; (b) the Corporation's internal auditors; (c) oversight of management's internal controls, compliance and risk assessment practices; (d) special investigations and whistleblower policies; and (e) miscellaneous issues related to the financial practices of the Corporation.

A. Independent Auditors and Financial Statements

The Audit and Finance committee shall:

- Appoint, compensate and oversee independent auditors retained by the Corporation and pre-approve all audit services provided by the independent auditor.
- Establish procedures for the engagement of the independent auditor to provide permitted audit services. The Corporation's independent auditor shall be prohibited from providing non-audit services unless having received previous written approval from the audit committee. Non-audit services include tasks that directly support the Corporation's operations, such as bookkeeping or other services related to the accounting records or financial statements of the Corporation, financial information systems design and implementation, appraisal or valuation services, actuarial services, investment banking services, and other tasks that may involve performing management functions or making management decisions.

- Review and approve the Corporation's audited financial statements, associated management letter, report on internal controls and all other auditor communications.
- Review significant accounting and reporting issues, including complex or unusual transactions and management decisions, and recent professional and regulatory pronouncements, and understand their impact on the financial statements.
- Meet with the independent audit firm on a regular basis to discuss any significant issues that may have surfaced during the course of the audit.
- Review and discuss any significant risks reported in the independent audit findings and recommendations and assess the responsiveness and timeliness of management's follow-up activities pertaining to the same.

B. Internal Auditors

The Audit and Finance committee shall:

- Review with management and the internal audit director, the charter, activities, staffing and organizational structure of the internal audit function. The audit committee shall have Corporation over the appointment, dismissal, compensation and performance reviews of the internal audit director.
- Ensure that the internal audit function is organizationally independent from Corporation operations.
- Review the reports of internal auditors, and have Corporation to review and approve the annual internal audit plan.
- Review the results of internal audits and approve procedures for implementing accepted recommendations of the internal auditor.

C. Internal Controls, Compliance and Risk Assessment

The Audit and Finance committee shall:

- Review management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal controls and review the report on internal controls by the independent auditor as a part of the financial audit engagement.

D. Special Investigations

The Audit and Finance committee shall:

- Ensure that the Corporation has an appropriate confidential mechanism for individuals to report suspected fraudulent activities, allegations of corruption, fraud, criminal activity, conflicts of interest or abuse by the directors, officers, or employees of the Corporation or any persons having business dealings with the Corporation or breaches of internal control.

- Develop procedures for the receipt, retention, investigation and/or referral of complaints concerning accounting, internal controls and auditing to the appropriate body.
- Request and oversee special investigations as needed and/or refer specific issues to the appropriate body for further investigation (for example, issues may be referred to the State Inspector General or, other investigatory organization.)
- Review all reports delivered to it by the Inspector General and serve as a point of contact with the Inspector General.

E. Review Corporation's Annual Budget

The Audit and Finance Committee shall:

- Review, amend, and recommend the corporation's annual operating budget as presented by corporate management for the upcoming fiscal year.
- Monitor and report to the Board of Directors on the corporation's compliance with its adopted budget during the fiscal year (actual v. estimated budget) on a monthly/quarterly basis.

F. Review Financial and Procurement Thresholds

The Audit and Finance Committee shall:

- Review and make recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding any proposed procurements submitted to the committee.
- Review and recommend changes to the corporation's thresholds for procuring goods and services and procurement policy.
- Review and recommend changes to the corporation's fee schedules.
- Review the scope and terms of the corporation's insurance policies and liability coverage on an annual basis.

G. Other Responsibilities of the Audit and Finance Committee

The Audit and Finance committee shall:

- Present annually to the Corporation's board a written report of how it has discharged its duties and met its responsibilities as outlined in the charter.
- Obtain any information and training needed to enhance the committee members' understanding of the role of internal audits and the independent auditor, the risk management process, internal controls and a certain level of familiarity in financial reporting standards and processes.
- Review the committee's charter annually, reassess its adequacy, and recommend any proposed changes to the board of the Corporation. The audit committee charter will be updated as applicable laws, regulations, accounting and auditing standards change.

- Conduct an annual self-evaluation of its performance, including its effectiveness and compliance with the charter and request the board approval for proposed changes.
