

Choose Columbia
Columbia Economic Development Corporation

David Fingar

Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

David joined the Columbia County Economic Development Corporation in 2014, and was elected Chairman in 2018. He is employed as Chief Engineer with Mid-Hudson Cablevision, where he designed and built the first 1,000-mile broadband network in Columbia & Greene Counties. He currently consults on Mid-Hudson's Fiber to the Home broadband project. He is the former owner of the Germantown Laundromat, past president of the Germantown Lions Club, past Commodore of the Catskill Yacht Club, and a two-term councilman in the town of Livingston. He and his wife Linda reside in Livingston. They have three sons and five grandchildren.