

Choose Columbia
Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Michael S. Johnston

Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

Michael Johnston has been providing student transportation for private and public schools since 1989. He has grown the business from an initial 6 buses and 4 drivers to 75+ vehicles and over 100 employees in three locations throughout Columbia County. The business currently services school districts from Saratoga Springs to Poughkeepsie. In 2017 Johnston Transportation was created to provide transportation services to Columbia County as well as private functions.