Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

Tarah Gay is co-founder of Public ! Sale Auction House in Hudson, New York. Public ! Sale Auction House was founded in February 2020 to create a fresh space for people to buy, sell and appreciate old items. Prior to that, Tarah created Outdated, a vegetarian café with a unique concept to combine antiques and food into one business. At the café, not only can you purchase food, but the furniture, décor and even dishes are for sale! Outdated was started in July 2012 in Kington, New York.

Tarah volunteers regularly, including Working together, Growing together with Good Work Institute. She also serves as a volunteer firefighter in Claverack.
